Hi Charles. Chassis # SR300531. The car was a showroom display for a European exotic car dealer. Up until 2 weeks ago the car never even had a battery installed in it. The car is perfect in every way. The local Radical dealer called it the time machine and was amazed at the overall pristine condition of the car. They are completing pre-delivery service this week and I should be picking the car up Thur. or Friday.. Where are you located ? Thanks for the interest. Alan Hills
PS. It is an amazing opportunity the dealer paid over $100,000 for the car in 2010.

Can you let me know what the Chassis number is for your car? Also, why does an 8 year old car have ) hours? This looks like a great opportunity.

Thanks.
